The Little Red Hen

Ruthie loves Superman. Ruthie wants to be Superman. And when Ruthie is asked to go spend the afternoon with her aunt, who is about to have a baby any day day now and may need some help., Ruthie seizes the opportunity. It could be her chance to be a hero, should the baby come while she's visiting! But when Ruthie is out fetching a snack for her aunt, she gets so distracted by a box full of kittens in the bodega that she doesn't hear her aunt calling for her, nor does she notice the policemen running to the apartment or the ambulance pulling to the curb. When she realizes what's happened, she's devastated -- she's missed her one chance to be a hero! Or has she? Sonia Manzano, best known as "Maria" on Sesame Street, once again captures the warmth, love, and adventures of her childhood Bronx neighborhood.

Bilingual Fairy Tales Peter Pan

E. A. Poe's short story follows Prince Prospero and his friends' futile attempt to outrun and outsmart a deadly plague, called the Red Death. The heart of the story is presented as a masquerade where the guests revel in mirth and intoxication, oblivious of the horrors that await them. The author's narrative techniques revolve around symbolism (number seven, the clock, the black chamber) and provides an allegorical halo around the short story. Witnessing his wife's suffering from tuberculosis and the ravages of cholera in Baltimore at the time, Poe imbues "The Mask" with an air of veracity, but the supernatural reigns supreme. Edgar Allan Poe (1809-1849) was an American poet, author, and literary critic. Most famous for his poetry, short stories, and tales of the supernatural, mysterious, and macabre, he is also regarded as the inventor of the detective genre and a contributor to the emergence of science fiction, dark romanticism, and weird fiction. His most famous works include "The Raven" (1845), "The Black Cat" (1843), and "The Gold-Bug" (1843).

Big Bear, Small Mouse

The Ugly Duckling is gray and scruffy and doesn't look anything like his cute and fluffy brothers and sisters. The Bilingual Fairy Tales Princess and the Pea

Who is Jesus? What did he do? What did he say? -Are the traditional answer to these questions still to be trusted? - Did the early church and tradition "Christianize" Jesus? - Was Christianity built on clever conceptions of the church, or on the character and actions of an actual person? These and similar questions have come under scrutiny by a forum of biblical scholars called the Jesus Seminar. Their conclusions have been widely publicized in magazines such as Time and Newsweek. Jesus Under Fire challenges the methodology and findings of the Jesus Seminar, which generally clash with the biblical records. It examines the authenticity of the words, actions, miracles, and resurrection of Jesus, and presents compelling evidence for the traditional biblical teachings. Combining accessibility with scholarly depth, Jesus Under Fire helps readers judge for themselves whether the Jesus of the Bible is the Jesus of history, and whether the gospels' claim is valid that he is the only way to God.

Star in the Forest

Hans Christian Andersen's first fairy story was published in 1835 and his last in 1872. This story is in part an allegory of Andersen's own life, as in youth he was a poverty-stricken misfit, mocked at by his school fellows. The mute swans in the illustrations breed in Denmark, and the Danish climate shapes this tale. Set in Denmark, circa late 19th century.

Young Gabe's is a story of heartache and jubilation. He's a child slave freed after the Civil War. He sets off to reunite himself with his mother who was sold before the war's end. "Come morning, the folks take to the road again, singing songs, telling stories, and dream-talking of the lives they're gonna live in freedom. And I follow, keeping my eyes open for my mama. Days pass into weeks, and one gray evening as Mr. Dark laid down his coat, I see a woman with a yellow scarf 'round her neck as bright as a star. I run up to grab her hand, saying, Mama?" Gabe's odyssey in search of his mother has an epic American quality, and Keith Shepherd's illustrations—influenced deeply by the narrative work of Thomas Hart Benton—fervently portray the struggle in Gabe's heroic quest. Selected as a 2012 Skipping Stones Honor Book and for the 2012 IRA Teacher's Choices Reading List. A. LaFaye hopes Walking Home to Rosie Lee will honor all those African American families who struggled to reunite at the end of the Civil War and will pay her respects to those who banded together through the long struggle for freedom. She is the author of the Scott O'Dell Award-winning novel Worth and lives in Tennessee with her daughter Adia. Keith Shepherd is a painter, graphic designer, and educator working out of Kansas City, MO. His painting "Sunday Best" is part of the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum's permanent collection. He describes his work as being "motivated by family, religion, history, and music."

The Bilingual Fairy Tales Gingerbread Man

Títulos de hoy y de siempre cuyo principal objetivo es reforzar el aprendizaje bilingüe en inglés y español desde la infancia. De la mano de los personajes clásicos, los pequeños lectores aprenden estructuras gramaticales y vocabulario de una manera natural, aprendiendo, además los valores eternos e internacionales que encierran estos maravillosos cuentos de toda la vida. Son historias de que los pequeños nunca se cansan, los que les cuentan sus padres, abuelos o maestros antes de irse a dormir, los que conocemos todos. Pero, en esta ocasión, tienen un valor añadido: en sus páginas aparece el texto en español y su correspondiente traducción en inglés. Por eso, se trata de una propuesta ideal para compartir en familia, estimular a los niños en el hábito de la lectura y al mismo tiempo incentivar el acercamiento a un segundo idioma. Por otro lado, se puede trabajar en varias líneas: lectura en español, lectura en inglés para los que tienen conocimientos más avanzados en ese idioma, o lectura comparada para aquellos que quieran afianzar el nuevo vocabulario.
